Interpublic is committed to operating sustainably. To us, this means measuring our carbon footprint and working toward limiting that footprint; respecting and encouraging diversity; and being a good corporate citizen of the communities where our employees live and work.
Sustainability – conducting our business ethically, and in line with the long-term health of the communities where our employees live and work – is key to IPG’s business strategy, and to the ethical operation of our company. During the past year, we have taken steps to strengthen our commitment to operating sustainably.

In this, our third year of reporting on our sustainability initiatives utilizing the GRI-G4 framework, we have continued to strengthen our commitment to operating sustainably. This year, we expanded the measurement of our emissions and other environmental impacts using GHG Protocol Corporate Standards. We expanded our boundary from last year to include three of our largest offices around Paris, France. Further, we expanded our boundary in North America by including all offices which are over 50,000 square feet (down from 100,000 square feet last year) and in the UK, this year, we included 40% of our portfolio and 100% of our owned facilities. The expanded boundary as of the end of 2016 included 37% of our worldwide headcount, and 45% of our worldwide square footage.

IPG continues to make strides in our areas of environmental focus – energy usage, recycling, travel and green building practices, as outlined in our recently updated sustainability policy – with a 35% reduction in square foot per employee from 2004 to 2016 and a 70% reduction in power consumption in our central IT operations since 2008.

We once again renewed our support of the United Nations Global Compact and committed to uphold the Compact’s ten principles in the areas of environmental sustainability, fair labor practices, human rights and anti-corruption.

This year, IPG has continued its support of Common Ground, the global initiative that brings together the major marketing and advertising holding companies in support of the UN Sustainable Development Goals. IPG is continuing its support of UN Sustainable Development Goal Number 6, ensuring universal access to clean water and sanitation. Some of our agencies’ work in this important area can be seen on the video we produced about our efforts. And IPG recently made a donation to charity: water to fully fund the creation of a drilled well in Tigray, Ethiopia, where 70% of the population currently lacks access to clean drinking water. Recent related work also includes using virtual reality to educate children about clean water, turning a bus stop into a water fountain that re-uses rainwater and educating employees at our corporate headquarters about the environmental benefits of our green roof.

IPG agencies continue to engage on issues of concern in their local communities and globally. Recent projects have included education about lung cancer screening, the protection of elephants in Cape Town, and the launch of an app to help those with severe allergies. Doing what’s right for our communities is an important part of our DNA and of our history. It’s also critical to our continued success.

The single most important factor in our company’s success is talent. And our talent is drawn from people of varying ages, backgrounds, cultures, faiths, genders, nationalities, physical abilities, political affiliations, races, gender identity, and sexual orientations – to name but a few of the qualities that make each of us unique. IPG has committed substantial resources and expertise to increasing diversity in our ranks and forging a sustainable culture of inclusion at our company. In 2016, IPG’s diversity and inclusion group executed more than 75 programs and events around the world. At IPG, we encourage, protect and celebrate our diversity. For us to compete effectively, our workforce has to reflect the world’s changing demographics and more important, its changing marketplace.

We are committed to working to deepen and broaden our commitment to sustainability during the year ahead. You can read more about IPG’s commitment to communities where our employees live and work on our sustainability website, STRONGER.

IPG Employees

Note this response is cross-referenced for G4-10, G4-LA1, G4-LA2, G4-LA10, and G4-LA11

Ours is a talent-driven business and our employees are our most important asset. We understand that to be successful in a creative industry, it is key that our employee base reflects the diversity of our clients’ consumers, and that we ensure a workplace that encourages and accepts diversity.

IPG began its formal diversity and inclusion (D&I) commitment more than a decade ago and was the first company in our industry to hire a dedicated Director of Diversity and Inclusion. To ensure accountability, our executives’ compensation is linked to their agencies’ performance on diversity and inclusion and we have instituted a comprehensive company-wide diversity and inclusion program. D&I initiatives include our business resource groups that develop career-building programs, as well as training around topics like unconscious bias. We are also unique in our industry in that we regularly measure the inclusiveness of our culture with a company-wide climate for inclusion survey. IPG has received numerous honors for its diversity and inclusion programs. These include the 2016 Champions of Diversity Exemplary Best Practices Award from the New York Urban League, nine 100 percent scores on the Corporate Equality Index, an annual survey by the Human Rights Campaign (HRC) ranking companies based on their policies and practices relating to gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender employees and recognition for gender diversity on our board by the Women’s Forum of New York.

The information in this section focuses on the composition of our workforce as well as how our employees are trained through our varied and robust development programs.

G4-10 and G4-LA1

Report the total number of employees by employment contract and gender, number of permanent employees by employment type and gender, total workforce by employees and supervised workers and by gender, the total workforce by region and gender, report whether a substantial portion of the organizations work is performed by workers who are legally recognized as self-employed, or by individuals other than employees or supervised workers, including employees and supervised employees of contractors, report any significant variations in employment numbers.

Total number and rates of new employee hires and employee turnover by age group, gender and region

IPG exceeded the U.S. Ad Industry External Workforce Benchmark in both “Officials and Managers” and “Professionals” categories for women and total minorities in 2016.

Additional results from IPG’s 2016 workforce data show that:

- Minorities make up 20% of US "Officials and Managers," an increase of 101% since 2005.
- The "Professional" talent base is 26% minority, an increase of 35% since 2005.
- Women make up 54% of all the company’s managers – including executive, senior and first & mid-level management – an increase of 16% since 2005.

G4-LA2
Benefits provided to full-time employees that are not provided to temporary or part-time employees, by significant locations of operation
Full-time and part-time employees working 20 hours or more on a regular basis receive a full range of medical benefits. For the temporary employee population, an employee must work an average of 30 hours per week or more over a 12-month period in order to be eligible for the IPG Medical plan only. They are excluded from all other benefits.

We do not make a distinction by location, if an employee is on the IPG payroll and meets the requirements, they are offered benefits.

G4-LA-10
Programs for Skills Management and Lifelong Learning That Support the Continued Employability of Employees and Assist Them in Managing Career Ending
Recruiting, retaining and promoting great talent is key to our long-term success. Skills training and executive development are important components of how we work with our people to ensure their success and the continued success of IPG.

Educational Assistance
IPG encourages and financially supports continuing education and development programs that meet the career goals of our employees which are aligned with the needs of our business. Regular full-time and part-time employees can achieve professional career goals through taking job-related courses at an accredited school, college or university and be reimbursed for up to 75 percent of the tuition expenses. Whether taking a standalone course or making a commitment to a bachelors or masters degree program, attending traditional-style classes or non-traditional (e.g., on-line or accelerated) programs, employees and their managers work together to support development.

Individual Department Training
It is critical for employees to maintain required credentials, gain skills with new technologies, manage department change, keep up with role-specific information, and onboard to new roles. Whatever the situation, individual departments provide training through a variety of means including staff meetings, global conferences, in-house speakers, periodicals/online services and colleague-to-colleague instruction.

Skills-Building Training
IPG offers managers and employees skill-building training via live classroom and live and recorded webcasts for employees across the globe to enhance foundational skills including coaching, interviewing, project management, workplace respect, communication, conflict resolution, customer service and performance management. Our training programs aim to educate employees on core competencies and empower participants to bring to life such skills in the workplace.

Global Training
Operating ethically and with the highest standards of integrity is critical to our continued success. IPG’s Code of Conduct forms the basis of how we interact with each other, with our vendors and with our clients. Each year, IPG provides employees with training on the Code of Conduct, and highlights different topics of particular importance to focus on during these trainings.

IPG Leadership Lab
The IPG Leadership Lab is a selective global executive development program for senior-level leaders within IPG agencies. The program draws high potential executives from across IPG and provides an intensive leadership development experience featuring in-market immersion, engagement with IPG executives, cross-agency peer coaching, and personal leadership feedback and planning. Held yearly since 2013, the IPG Leadership Lab has strengthened agency leadership while enhancing collaboration across IPG.

Internship Program

The IPG Internship program offers students meaningful projects that provide an introduction to our industry while also developing a highly-valued future talent pool. Interns are provided with the tools and guidance that allow their roles to be hands-on educational experiences. Working with knowledgeable mentors, interns gain exposure to a broad range of processes and new technologies as well as substantive knowledge about our industry. Internships are offered during the summer and in a limited number of areas, year round.

Transition Assistance

IPG provides employees with support, as needed, through many transitions that take place over the employment life cycle (e.g., transitioning to a new role, transitioning back to work from a leave of absence or transitioning to retirement). This might include retirement and financial planning resources, coaching and career guidance, work-life balance resources and flexible work arrangements.

IPG Learning & Development Site – This site provides a wealth of diverse online courses and provides resources at employees’ fingertips. There are multiple skill-building courses offered on management and leadership, performance management, writing & communication, diversity & inclusion, customer service, project management and personal development. Also offered are a wide variety of technical courses. Many of these courses are offered in multiple languages to meet the needs of our global population; languages include Mandarin, Japanese, Italian, German, French, Portuguese, and Spanish. The site also hosts numerous thought-provoking resources including articles, videos and free webinars addressing diverse topics.

Managing Day-to-Day series – This interactive, scenario-based live webcast series complements our “Managers Quick Reference Guide: Managing Day-to-Day Employment Issues,” a resource for our IPG Corporate managers. The series addresses a multitude of management topics and participating managers are asked what they would do in certain situations. Then our Human Resources and Legal experts offer their perspectives. “Managing Day-to-Day” resources can also be found on our IPG Learning & Development Site.

MyLead – MyLead is an IPG enterprise-wide offered program, targeting senior managers for leadership development. It is an interactive leadership immersion experience which includes business simulation and real-time executive coaching. The program is designed to develop areas of responsibility that are most relevant to leadership roles in our industry and include Business Leadership, Client Leadership, and People Leadership.

The Art and Science of Leadership (TASL) – Like MyLead, TASL is an IPG enterprise-wide offering. This offering targets newer managers or those who need to further develop their core management skills. TASL participants learn key facets of leadership via an on-line, interactive experience. Participants are also involved in business simulations in which they face realistic skill challenges. An executive coach partners with each participant to discuss his/her activities, provides the participant with specific behavioral feedback, helps plan for future development, and helps the participant to apply the new skills back at work.

Percentage of employees receiving regular performance and career development reviews, by gender and by employee category

Performance Management – IPG advocates for all employees to actively participate and invest in performance management. Aligning individual goals with organizational objectives not only allows employees to better understand what is expected of them and how important their contributions are to the business, but it also empowers them to champion their own personal development. Our corporate process is guided by a new ePerformance on-line tool. The tool is a catalyst to promote discussion between managers and employees about personal and business goals, development plans and career aspirations. Approximately three quarters of IPG employees actively participate in our on-line performance management process.

Report the percentage of total employees covered by collective bargaining agreements

The percentage of IPG employees covered by collective bargaining is zero – 0 percent.

We have not had any labor union organizing activity at our offices in the United States, nor do we have any employees in the US who are covered by collective bargaining agreements. Some of our offices in Europe do have Works Councils – and IPG management teams at these offices work collaboratively and cooperatively with the Works Councils as applicable.
Describe the organization’s supply chain.

Each year, IPG spends over $2 billion on products and services from more than 75,000 suppliers around the world.

The Global Sourcing & Procurement (GS&P) function at IPG leverages the collective buying power of all of our agencies across the world and applies a disciplined approach to sourcing and procurement in the categories where we have significant spend, including pass thru spend.

GS&P follows a standard strategic sourcing process. Included in the process is a due diligence phase during which we assess a number of key criteria, including the financial strength, capabilities, capacity, quality of products and services, commitment to diversity and sustainability, and the total cost of ownership associated with suppliers we do business with. Read more about this in our Supplier Code of Conduct which can be accessed at the following link: http://www.interpublic.com/about/corporate-governance.

Supplier diversity and sustainability are key components of our strategic sourcing process and our current and potential clients are highly interested in our approach. We are firmly committed to providing an inclusive environment for minority- and women-owned businesses.

On an ongoing basis, we conduct business review meetings with our key suppliers during which we discuss the feedback we have received from our business units regarding the supplier’s performance. In conjunction with supplier reviews, we continually assess the competitive landscape within each of our key supplier verticals. Based upon the feedback received from the business units and the competitive landscape, RFP timelines are established to ensure IPG agencies and clients are receiving best-in-class service and pricing.

IPG understands that suppliers are independent entities, but the business practices and actions of a supplier may significantly impact and/or reflect upon us, our reputation and our brands. Because of this, and because we are committed to operating sustainably, IPG expects all suppliers and their employees, agents and subcontractors (their representatives) to adhere to the IPG Code of Conduct http://www.interpublic.com/about/corporate-governance while they are conducting business with and/or on behalf of IPG.

We will continue to focus on digital and marketing services agencies throughout the world and on key international growth markets.

List externally developed economic, environmental and social charters, principles or other initiatives to which the organization subscribes or which it endorses.

IPG is committed to operating as sustainably as possible. And we define sustainability broadly to include diversity and inclusion, the betterment of our communities and conducting our business in a way that is in sync with the long-term health of our planet.

IPG is a signatory of the United Nations Global Compact, an initiative that encourages companies to align strategies and operations with universal principles on human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption, and to report on the actions the company takes to advance these societal goals. Additionally, we are part of Common Ground, an initiative that brings together the companies in our sector in support of the UN Sustainable Development Goals. IPG has adopted Goal #6, access to water and sanitation, and is working on a number of initiatives in support of this goal. In addition, the company has recently made a donation to charity: water that will fully support a drilled well in Tigray, Ethiopia, a community where about 70% of the population currently lacks access to clean water.

We also aim to strengthen the communities where our employees live and work. Every day, around the world, teams from our agencies are working in their local markets on projects that include prescription drug overdose among teenagers, working to end Alzheimer’s disease and encouraging equality and inclusivity.

Each year, IPG contributes financially as well as through in-kind donations to many organizations focused on economic justice, environmental, health and social impact, that have a positive impact on the communities where our employees live and work. G4-18

a. Explain the process for defining the report content and the Aspect Boundaries.

b. Explain how the organization has implemented the Reporting Principles for Defining Report Content.

Interpublic completed a comprehensive materiality process with the assistance of The Governance & Accountability Institute, an independent third-party. IPG examined the importance of each GRI indicator and various sustainability issues to key important stakeholder groups including our peers, largest customers, employees and investors.

We then reviewed the results with an internal team of senior management to make the final decisions on what is considered to be material to Interpublic and its stakeholders.

Based on this process, we selected our material aspects, indicators and report content.

We are continuing as an organization to engage with our stakeholders, and further examining what additional sustainability aspects are important to them and to our business. In the future, we will update the report content to include the results of these engagements and considerations as we continue to develop our sustainability program.

G4-24: Provide a list of stakeholder groups engaged by the organization.

G4-25: Report the basis for identification and selection of stakeholders with whom to engage.

G4-26: Report the organization’s approach to stakeholder engagement, including frequency of engagement by type and by stakeholder group, and an indication of whether any of the engagement was undertaken specifically as part of the report preparation process.

Interpublic Group’s most important stakeholders are our clients, our employees and investors.

We work with our clients to ensure that the marketing communications programs we design for them are most efficiently and effectively moving their businesses forward. In order to ensure that our clients are successful and that we maintain our competitive positioning in the marketplace, we must always make certain that our business is aligned with clients’ changing needs and the ever-changing consumer landscape. Ours is a talent business and, to serve our clients in the best way possible, we must recruit and retain top talent.

Finally, as a public company, it’s essential that we meet the expectations of our shareholders who make it possible for us to do best-in-class work on behalf of our clients.

Interpublic Group conducted a materiality assessment with the assistance of our sustainability consultant, Governance & Accountability Institute, the exclusive data partner for the Global Reporting Initiative in the United States.

We conducted research with our clients, our employees and our investors. In addition, we had discussions with internal proxies representing these groups to learn more about which areas are critical for us to focus on in our sustainability strategy. We also engage regularly with these key stakeholder groups during our normal business operations. Increasingly we are receiving various questions and surveys from clients asking about particular aspects of our sustainability program which enable us to learn more about their areas of focus as well as their concerns.

In addition to these three key groups, we took into account other stakeholder groups such as NGOs, government, academia and our industry peers, which all provide important insight into the sustainability issues that are important to IPG, our clients and our industry.

Based on the results of this stakeholder-inclusive materiality process, we have chosen the GRI aspects and indicators that we include as part of this report. In addition, we are continuing to improve the way we engage with these important stakeholders on an ongoing basis to further inform our sustainability strategy moving forward.

Report key topics and concerns that have been raised through stakeholder engagement, and how the organization has responded to those key topics and concerns, including through its reporting. Report the stakeholder groups that raised each of the key topics and concerns.

At IPG, we define sustainability broadly to include minimizing our environmental footprint, ensuring diversity and inclusion at all of our companies, and assisting communities where our employees live and work. Sustainability is a key priority for IPG as it is for our stakeholders, including employees, clients and shareholders. We regularly engage with each of these groups on these topics, as we do with all matters of mutual importance. IPG and its agencies work with clients on projects that highlight such matters of importance and many of these engagements are featured on our STRONGER website which is devoted exclusively to the coverage of sustainability.

Recent work in this area has included:

Furthering the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

Advancing diversity and inclusion in the workforce

Describe the organization’s values, principles, standards and norms of behavior such as codes of conduct and codes of ethics

Interpublic’s Code of Conduct forms the foundation of how we interact with one another, with our vendors and with our clients. It helps ensure that we operate ethically and transparently as we perform our jobs. Each year, employees are required to take a course that reviews the code and focuses on particularly relevant topics in the code. We have had great success with employee participation in these courses. Participation rates for the past two years follow:

For 2015 Code of Conduct:
98%, 42,209 out of 43,249

For 2016 Code of Conduct:

In terms of suppliers, IPG IT actively assesses the credentials and qualifications of our partners and encourages them to adopt environmentally friendly policies. At IPG, we source from a wide base of suppliers to ensure economic advantage for our clients.

Each year, around the world, IPG agencies work to make a difference in the communities where our agencies operate. These projects can be seen on the STRONGER section of our website and include partnering with the United Nations on furthering Sustainable Development Goal #6, access to clean water and sanitation, working to improve adult literacy, helping underserved kids in South Africa to reach their full potential and bringing attention to the problem of abused children in France.

In developing nations where IPG operates, IPG agencies, by the nature of their business, help local businesses to be more productive in terms of their marketing and promotional activities. IPG agencies in local markets around the world purchase goods and services from local businesses and entrepreneurs and, of course, employ individuals from local communities. All of these activities benefit the local economies where IPG agencies operate.

Ours is a talent-driven business and our employees are our most important asset. We understand that to be successful in a creative industry, it is key that our employee base reflects the diversity of our clients’ consumers, and that we ensure a workplace that encourages and accepts diversity.

IPG began its formal diversity and inclusion (D&I) commitment more than a decade ago and was the first company in our industry to hire a dedicated Director of Diversity and Inclusion. To ensure accountability, our executives’ compensation is linked to their agencies' performance on diversity and inclusion and we have instituted a comprehensive company-wide diversity and inclusion program. D&I initiatives include our business resource groups that develop career-building programs, as well as training around topics like unconscious bias. We are also unique in our industry in that we regularly measure the inclusiveness of our culture with a company-wide climate for inclusion survey. IPG has received numerous honors for its diversity and inclusion programs. These include the 2016 Champions of Diversity Exemplary Best Practices Award from the New York Urban League, nine 100 percent scores on the Corporate Equality Index, an annual survey by the Human Rights Campaign (HRC) ranking companies based on their policies and practices relating to gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender employees and recognition for gender diversity on our board by the Women’s Forum of New York.

The information in this section focuses on the composition of our workforce as well as how our employees are trained through our varied and robust development programs.

Internships are offered during the summer and in a limited number of areas, year round.

Transition Assistance

This might include retirement and financial planning resources, coaching and career guidance, work-life balance resources and flexible work arrangements.

IPG Learning & Development Site - This site provides a wealth of diverse online courses and provides resources at employees’ fingertips. There are multiple skill-building courses offered on management and leadership, performance management, writing & communication, diversity & inclusion, customer service, project management and personal development. Internship Program

The IPG Internship program offers students meaningful projects that provide an introduction to our industry while also developing a highly-valued future talent pool. Interns are provided with the tools and guidance that allow their roles to be hands-on educational experiences. Working with knowledgeable mentors, interns gain exposure to a broad range of processes and new technologies as well as substantive knowledge about our industry. Internships are offered during the summer and in a limited number of areas, year round.

Transition Assistance

IPG provides employees with support, as needed, through myriad transitions that take place over the employment life cycle (e.g., transitioning to a new role, transitioning back to work from a leave of absence or transitioning to retirement). This might include retirement and financial planning resources, coaching and career guidance, work-life balance resources and flexible work arrangements.

IPG Learning & Development Site – This site provides a wealth of diverse online courses and provides resources at employees’ fingertips. There are multiple skill-building courses offered on management and leadership, performance management, writing & communication, diversity & inclusion, customer service, project management and personal development. Also offered are a wide variety of technical courses. Many of these courses are offered in multiple languages to meet the needs of our global population; languages include Mandarin, Japanese, Italian, German, French, Portuguese, and Spanish. The site also hosts numerous thought-provoking resources including articles, videos and free webinars addressing diverse topics.

Managing Day-to-Day series – This interactive, scenario-based live webcast series complements our “Managers Quick Reference Guide: Managing Day-to-Day Employment Issues,” a resource for our IPG Corporate managers. The series addresses a multitude of management topics and participating managers are asked what they would do in certain situations. Then our Human Resources and Legal experts offer their perspectives. “Managing Day-to-Day” resources can also be found on our IPG Learning & Development Site.

MyLead – MyLead is an IPG enterprise-wide offered program, targeting senior managers for leadership development. It is an interactive leadership immersion experience which includes business simulation and real-time executive coaching. The program is designed to develop areas of responsibility that are most relevant to leadership roles in our industry and include Business Leadership, Client Leadership, and People Leadership.

The Art and Science of Leadership (TASL) – Like MyLead, TASL is an IPG enterprise-wide offering. This offering targets newer managers or those who need to further develop their core management skills. TASL participants learn key facets of leadership via an on-line, interactive experience. Participants are also involved in business simulations in which they face realistic skill challenges. An executive coach partners with each participant to discuss his/her activities, provides the participant with specific behavioral feedback, helps plan for future development, and helps the participant to apply the new skills back at work.

Performance Management – IPG advocates for all employees to actively participate and invest in performance management. Aligning individual goals with organizational objectives not only allows employees to better understand what is expected of them and how important their contributions are to the business, but it also empowers them to champion their own personal development. Our corporate process is guided by a new ePerformance on-line tool. The tool is a catalyst to promote discussion between managers and employees about personal and business goals, development plans and career aspirations. Approximately three quarters of IPG employees actively participate in our on-line performance management process.

Ours is a talent-driven business and our employees are our most important asset. We understand that to be successful in a creative industry, it is key that our employee base reflects the diversity of our clients’ consumers, and that we ensure a workplace that encourages and accepts diversity.

IPG began its formal diversity and inclusion (D&I) commitment more than a decade ago and was the first company in our industry to hire a dedicated Director of Diversity and Inclusion. To ensure accountability, our executives’ compensation is linked to their agencies’ performance on diversity and inclusion and we have instituted a comprehensive company-wide diversity and inclusion program. D&I initiatives include our business resource groups that develop career-building programs, as well as training around topics like unconscious bias. We are also unique in our industry in that we regularly measure the inclusiveness of our culture with a company-wide climate for inclusion survey. IPG has received numerous honors for its diversity and inclusion programs. These include the 2016 Champions of Diversity Exemplary Best Practices Award from the New York Urban League, eight 100 percent scores on the Corporate Equality Index, an annual survey by the Human Rights Campaign (HRC) ranking companies based on their policies and practices relating to gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender employees and recognition for gender diversity on our board by the Women’s Forum of New York.

The information in this section focuses on the composition of our workforce as well as how our employees are trained through our varied and robust development programs.

- Minorities make up 20% of US "Officials and Managers," an increase of 101% since 2005.
- The "Professional" talent base is 26% minority, an increase of 35% since 2005.

Benefits provided to full-time employees that are not provided to temporary or part-time employees, by significant locations of operation
Full-time and part-time employees working 20 hours or more on a regular basis receive a full range of medical benefits.
For the temporary employee population, an employee must work an average of 30 hours per week or more over a 12-month period in order to be eligible for the IPG Medical plan only. They are excluded from all other benefits.

We do not make a distinction by location, if an employee is on the IPG payroll and meets the requirements, they are offered benefits.

Programs for Skills Management and Lifelong Learning That Support the Continued Employability of Employees and Assist Them in Managing Career Ending
Recruiting, retaining and promoting great talent is key to our long-term success. Skills training and executive development are important components of how we work with our people to ensure their success and the continued success of IPG.

Educational Assistance
IPG encourages and financially supports continuing education and development programs that meet the career goals of our employees which are aligned with the needs of our business. Regular full-time and part-time employees can achieve professional career goals through taking job-related courses at an accredited school, college or university and be reimbursed for up to 75 percent of the tuition expenses. Whether taking a standalone course or making a commitment to a bachelors or masters degree program, attending traditional-style classes or non-traditional (e.g., on-line or accelerated) programs, employees and their managers work together to support development.

Individual Department Training
It is critical for employees to maintain required credentials, gain skills with new technologies, manage department change, keep up with role-specific information, and onboard to new roles. Whatever the situation, individual departments provide training through a variety of means including staff meetings, global conferences, in-house speakers, periodicals/online services and colleague-to-colleague instruction.

Skills-Building Training
IPG offers managers and employees skill-building training via live classroom and live and recorded webcasts for employees across the globe to enhance foundational skills including coaching, interviewing, project management, workplace respect, communication, conflict resolution, customer service and performance management. Our training programs aim to educate employees on core competencies and empower participants to bring to life such skills in the workplace.

Global Training
Operating ethically and with the highest standards of integrity is critical to our continued success. IPG’s Code of Conduct forms the basis of how we interact with each other, with our vendors and with our clients. Each year, IPG provides employees with training on the Code of Conduct, and highlights different topics of particular importance to focus on during these trainings.

This year Interpublic has continued our journey of calculating GHG emissions by expanding our boundary from last year to include three of our largest offices around Paris, France. Further, we expanded our boundary in North America by including all offices which are over 50,000 square feet (down from 100,000 square feet last year) and in the UK, this year, we included 40% of our portfolio and 100% of our owned facilities. Our Scope 1 and Scope 2 calculations in North America and Paris, France were completed using Measurabl, the online sustainability data software, which aligns its carbon accounting algorithms to the WRI/WBCSD’s GHG Protocol, Revised Edition methodologies. To calculate carbon emissions, we use US EPA e-Grid emissions factors for buildings within the United States and national-level emissions factors for buildings outside the United States.

To calculate our UK emissions we were supplied with an annual emissions report by Green Element. The calculations completed by Green Element are in accordance with the GHG Protocol using 2016 conversions factors for purchased electricity and gas. Where up to 3 months’ worth of data was not available or accurate, the missing data was estimated using a monthly average for that supply.

The expanded boundary as of the end of 2016 included 37% of our worldwide headcount, and 45% of our worldwide square footage.

Below are the combined calculated Scope 1 and 2 emissions:

Reductions in energy requirements of products and services

Information Technology – to improve IT operational efficiencies and reduce energy consumption, IPG has migrated its IT infrastructure and applications operations to the state-of-the-art Scott Technology Center facilities located on the campus of the University of Nebraska at Omaha (State of Nebraska).

IPG consolidated its four Global IT Data Centers to this new facility, which utilizes energy-efficient technology and virtualization. As a result, since 2008, IPG IT has decreased the number of physical servers in our production and disaster recovery facilities by 30% while increasing its hosting services; more than doubling the amount of storage. IPG also achieved a 66% reduction in IT power consumption and reduced the Central IT data center square footage by half when we centralized our data centers (starting in 2008). IPG is now sustaining a 70/30 ratio of virtual to physical machines which have decreased racks, ports, and overall carbon footprint.

IPG IT continues to adopt new energy-efficient technology as older servers and storage age out and need replacement, and over the years, we have been able to continue to reduce the number of server racks and power required to run IPG’s enterprise infrastructure and applications while continually adding new feature functionality. Additionally, Central IT moved from New York City to Jersey City, NJ, and achieved Gold level LEED certification in our new IT headquarters.

This year Interpublic has continued our journey of calculating GHG emissions by expanding our boundary from last year to include three of our largest offices around Paris, France. Further, we expanded our boundary in North America by including all offices which are over 50,000 square feet (down from 100,000 square feet last year) and in the UK, this year, we included 40% of our portfolio and 100% of our owned facilities. Our Scope 1 and Scope 2 calculations in North America and Paris, France were completed using Measurabl, the online sustainability data software, which aligns its carbon accounting algorithms to the WRI/WBCSD’s GHG Protocol, Revised Edition methodologies. To calculate carbon emissions, we use US EPA e-Grid emissions factors for buildings within the United States and national-level emissions factors for buildings outside the United States.

To calculate our UK emissions we were supplied with an annual emissions report by Green Element. The calculations completed by Green Element are in accordance with the GHG Protocol using 2016 conversions factors for purchased electricity and gas. Other indirect greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions (Scope 3)

IPG’s nearly 50,000 employees around the world travel more than 290 million miles each year on airplanes. In 2014, the IPG travel department developed a new way to track carbon emissions related to that travel and a way for our business travelers to play a big part in reducing those emissions.

While we work to limit our travel where possible, in a client services business, some of our travel is absolutely essential. Smart travel policies – traveling less where possible, traveling lighter and traveling smarter – is a shared goal that we have committed to. To help ensure that travel across our organization is as sustainable as possible, we have enhanced our online booking tool to allow business travelers to sort air travel by carbon dioxide (CO2) emissions as well as by time and cost. This tracking system has been turned on in nearly all countries where online booking is available, allowing our business travelers to assess comparative CO2 emissions between IPG preferred carriers, allowing us to make smarter travel choices that are also less damaging to the environment.

By understanding the impact each of us can have upon the economic, environmental, and social sustainability of our communities, our employees can contribute in small ways to the ongoing health of our communities. Our travel program that takes carbon emissions into consideration was one of the first of its kind to be instituted at a Fortune 500 company.

In 2016, IPG employees around the world traveled a total of 296,744,957 miles, with total emissions of 61,693 tCO2e (metric tons of carbon dioxide equivalent).

Significant environmental impacts of transporting products and other goods and materials for the organization’s operations, and transporting members of the workforce

As a client services business, IPG does not transport appreciable amounts of material, nor does IPG manufacture or ship manufactured goods. Our primary asset is our people. And, as a client services company with clients and offices located all over the world, our employees do travel frequently for business. We are working to mitigate the impact of this travel in several ways.

First, IPG encourages its employees to utilize alternate meeting tools when available and when practical. Multiple file sharing systems are in place and are regularly utilized, as are video conferencing resources. In our new corporate space in New York City, several of our conference rooms are lync-enabled, which expanded our functionality from laptops and desktops (voice, video, & screen share) to the conference room audio system and LCD monitors. So employees are now able to see video stream from those speaking on one LCD monitor next to a monitor showing the presentation materials. Remote users are able to see speakers and participants in the conference room alongside presentation materials being shared from a laptop.

While some business travel is of course absolutely essential, we were among the first Fortune 500 companies to implement a tool that allows our business travelers to take carbon emissions into consideration when booking their travel – for more information and detail on this initiative, please see our response to G4EN-17.

IPG provides Code of Conduct training each year as well as anti-harassment training to all new hires in the US and to senior managers outside the U.S. Every two years, we re-train California managers, and every four years, we re-train all US employees. Our Chief Executive Officer invites and encourages all employees to take these courses and we have had good success in obtaining high levels of employee participation. Specifically:

New Hire Code of Conduct Course

14,309 completed x 50 minutes to complete = 715,450 minutes = 11,924 hours.

Completion Rate -- 97%

California Harassment Course

299 completed x 120 minutes = 35,880 miles = 598 hours

CA Harassment Course is only for California. There is a legal requirement under CA state law, AB 1825 for supervisors in California to receive two hours of training every two years.

Employee/Supervisor Harassment Course

3717 completed x 35 minutes to complete = 130,095 minutes = 2,168.25 hours

Completion Rate -- 92%

Affirmative Action Fundamentals

1,610 completed x 30 minutes to complete = 48,300 minutes = 805 hours

Completion Rate -- 90%

Code of Conduct Course-Current Employees

Approximately 30 minutes x 39,290 completed = 1,178,700 minutes = 19,645 hours

Total number and percentage of operations assessed for risks related to corruption and the significant risks identified

Report the total number and percentage of operations assessed for risks related to corruption.

Report the significant risks related to corruption identified through the risk assessment

The entirety of our operations is assessed for risks related to corruption. Some of our offices undergo more in-depth assessments, in the form of internal audits. Internal audits take place periodically at offices and geographic locations that are perceived to be high-risk, based on a matrix of objective and subjective factors. The significant risks identified relate, primarily, to the typical risks associated with using third party vendors to assist with respect to winning or maintaining government client accounts in countries that are known for high levels of corruption. We attempt to address these risks through our anti-corruption policies that require, among other things, engaging in third party due diligence, requiring third parties to agree in writing to comply with anti-corruption laws, and by training our employees to understand how to comply with these policies.

IPG regularly communicates its anti-corruption policies and procedures by a variety of methods. Some messages are intended for a broad audience, while other messages are targeted to specific audiences. Communications are also tailored to specific jurisdictions or in connection with circumstances that may pose increased risks. For example, during the Mid-Autumn Festival (a Chinese holiday in which business associates traditionally exchange gifts), IPG sends a reminder to Chinese employees of the company’s Gift Policy. To have maximum impact, this reminder is sent by local management in the Chinese language.

All employees, worldwide, are required to take an annual Code of Conduct training, which includes anti-corruption matters. In addition, IPG Legal, Risk and Internal Audit personnel regularly conduct live, in-person training sessions for key personnel in significant, high-risk markets such as China, India, South Africa and Brazil.

Total value of political contributions by country and recipient/beneficiary

Although personal political activity is welcome, as employees we may not make political contributions by or in the name of IPG or any of its subsidiaries.

Political Activities

Personal Political Activities

IPG Employees are all permitted to positively support our communities by participating in the political activities that interest us. However, we must be careful to uphold IPG’s reputation by only participating in such activities on our own time and at our own expense. We may not allow any campaign or candidate to use Interpublic funds or assets, equipment or trademarks. In addition, we should never use IPG’s name while taking part in these activities. We must never use our position of authority to make another employee feel compelled or pressured to participate in any way in any political event or cause, or for any political purpose.

Corporate Political Activities

Although personal political activity is welcome, as employees we may not make political contributions by or in the name of IPG or any of its subsidiaries. “Political contributions” include IPG funds and anything of value, including loans, contributions or use of goods, facilities, or services. These restrictions apply not only to direct contributions made to individual candidates, political committees, or political parties, but also to indirect contributions that would ultimately be used to support individual candidates, political committees, or political parties, such as tickets to a fundraising dinner or similar event.

IPG’s Standard Policies and Procedures (SP&Ps) also address the issue of political contributions. Specifically, IPG’s Anti-corruption policy, SP&P 309, states:

Due to the inherently sensitive nature of political contributions, you may not pay or furnish Company funds, facilities, or services of any kind to any candidate for public office, any political party or official thereof, any political action committee, or any political initiative, referendum, or other form of political campaign without prior approval from the Company’s General Counsel and Chief Risk Officer.

The foregoing restriction does not apply to political marketing and communications services or ordinary lobbying activities conducted by an agency whose regular business activities consist of such services or activities.

Nothing in this Policy shall preclude political contributions by Personnel from their personal funds and for personal reasons, but Personnel may not use personal funds to make any payments or contributions on behalf of, or for the benefit of, the Company.

These policies are in force for employees in all countries in which IPG operates.
